

Complaint Form

It is possible for our viewers to submit a complain about the following issues:

- If you have been offended by a journalist's behaviour
- If you are the subject of a news article
- If a news article is not accurate
- If you represent a group and have been offended by a news article

In order to send your complaint, you need to state the following information:

- The article name
- The date of the broadcast
- The name of the broadcast
- A description of the elements which you are complaining about.
- Your Name and Phone

Please note that when making a complaint there is a maximum time of three months from the date the issue was broadcasted. If the complaint is about an event which occurred prior to three months, it will not be kept into consideration.

Complaints are to be sent through email. If your issue is relevant and in need of a quick answer, we will contact you as quick as possible.

We will not disclose your personal information to anyone, however, you will not be allowed to share or disclose any of the information that you will receive with your answer.
